

CHEMISTRY POLICIES & PROCEDURES

<https://chem.washington.edu/policies-procedures>

Visit the Department of Chemistry website at <https://chem.washington.edu/> To review the required sections:

Click on the drop-down menu titled Resources, then click on Health & Safety.

Click on the drop-down menu titled Resources, then hover over Departmental Users for the fly out option of Policies & Procedures.

POSITION CLASSIFICATION	SECTIONS TO READ
Researchers from Other UW Departments Researchers from Outside the UW Chemistry researchers who are: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Undergraduates• Postdoctoral Scholars• Visitors	Policies and Procedures: Building Security and Use (Required reading regardless of 24-hours access) Laboratory Operations (Not required reading for users of the NMR, ICP, or the BAG 083 instrument facilities) Resources >> Health & Safety
Graduate Students of the Department of Chemistry should read the complete manual, but the greatest emphasis should be on:	Policies and Procedures: Building Security and Use Instructional & Laboratory Services (all) Graduate Program (all) In the Resources drop down menu: Health & Safety Departmental Users >> TA Information
Faculty, Staff & Instructors of the Department of Chemistry should read the complete manual, but the greatest emphasis should be on:	Policies and Procedures: Building Security and Use Instructional & Laboratory Services (all for instructors) Resources >> Health & Safety (general)

Your signature below certifies that you have read the applicable sections of the UW Department of Chemistry Policies & Procedures Manual.

Signature

Date

Printed Name

Position and Department

Name of Supervisor/Adviser (you do not need their signature here, just write their name)